About me

Applying for the position Front-end developer.

Finding the best solutions is my motto.
I am fond of web-development for the last year.

Studying at KPI gave me a strong skill:
idea - implementation. And I want to introduce these skills into new promising projects.
To cheer up a team with a harmless joke is also my responsibility :)

For additional interests I want to include electronics and information technologies.

I have six months of experience as a freelancer. I am open to new heights to put my ideas into reality.
